Who is in your FAMILY?

The Family's in the House

sung to the tune of "Farmer in the Dell"

The family's in the house,
the family's in the house,
La la la la la
The family's in the house.

The father loves the mother,
the father loves the mother,
La la la la la
The father loves the mother.

The mother loves the brother,
the mother loves the brother,
La la la la la
The mother loves the brother.

Continue with sister, grandpa, grandma, aunt, uncle, cousin, etc.

I Love My Family

sung to the tune of "Are you Sleeping?"

I love my family, I love my family,
Yes I do! Yes I do!
Families are for hugging,
Families are for kissing,
They love me too,
Yes they do!

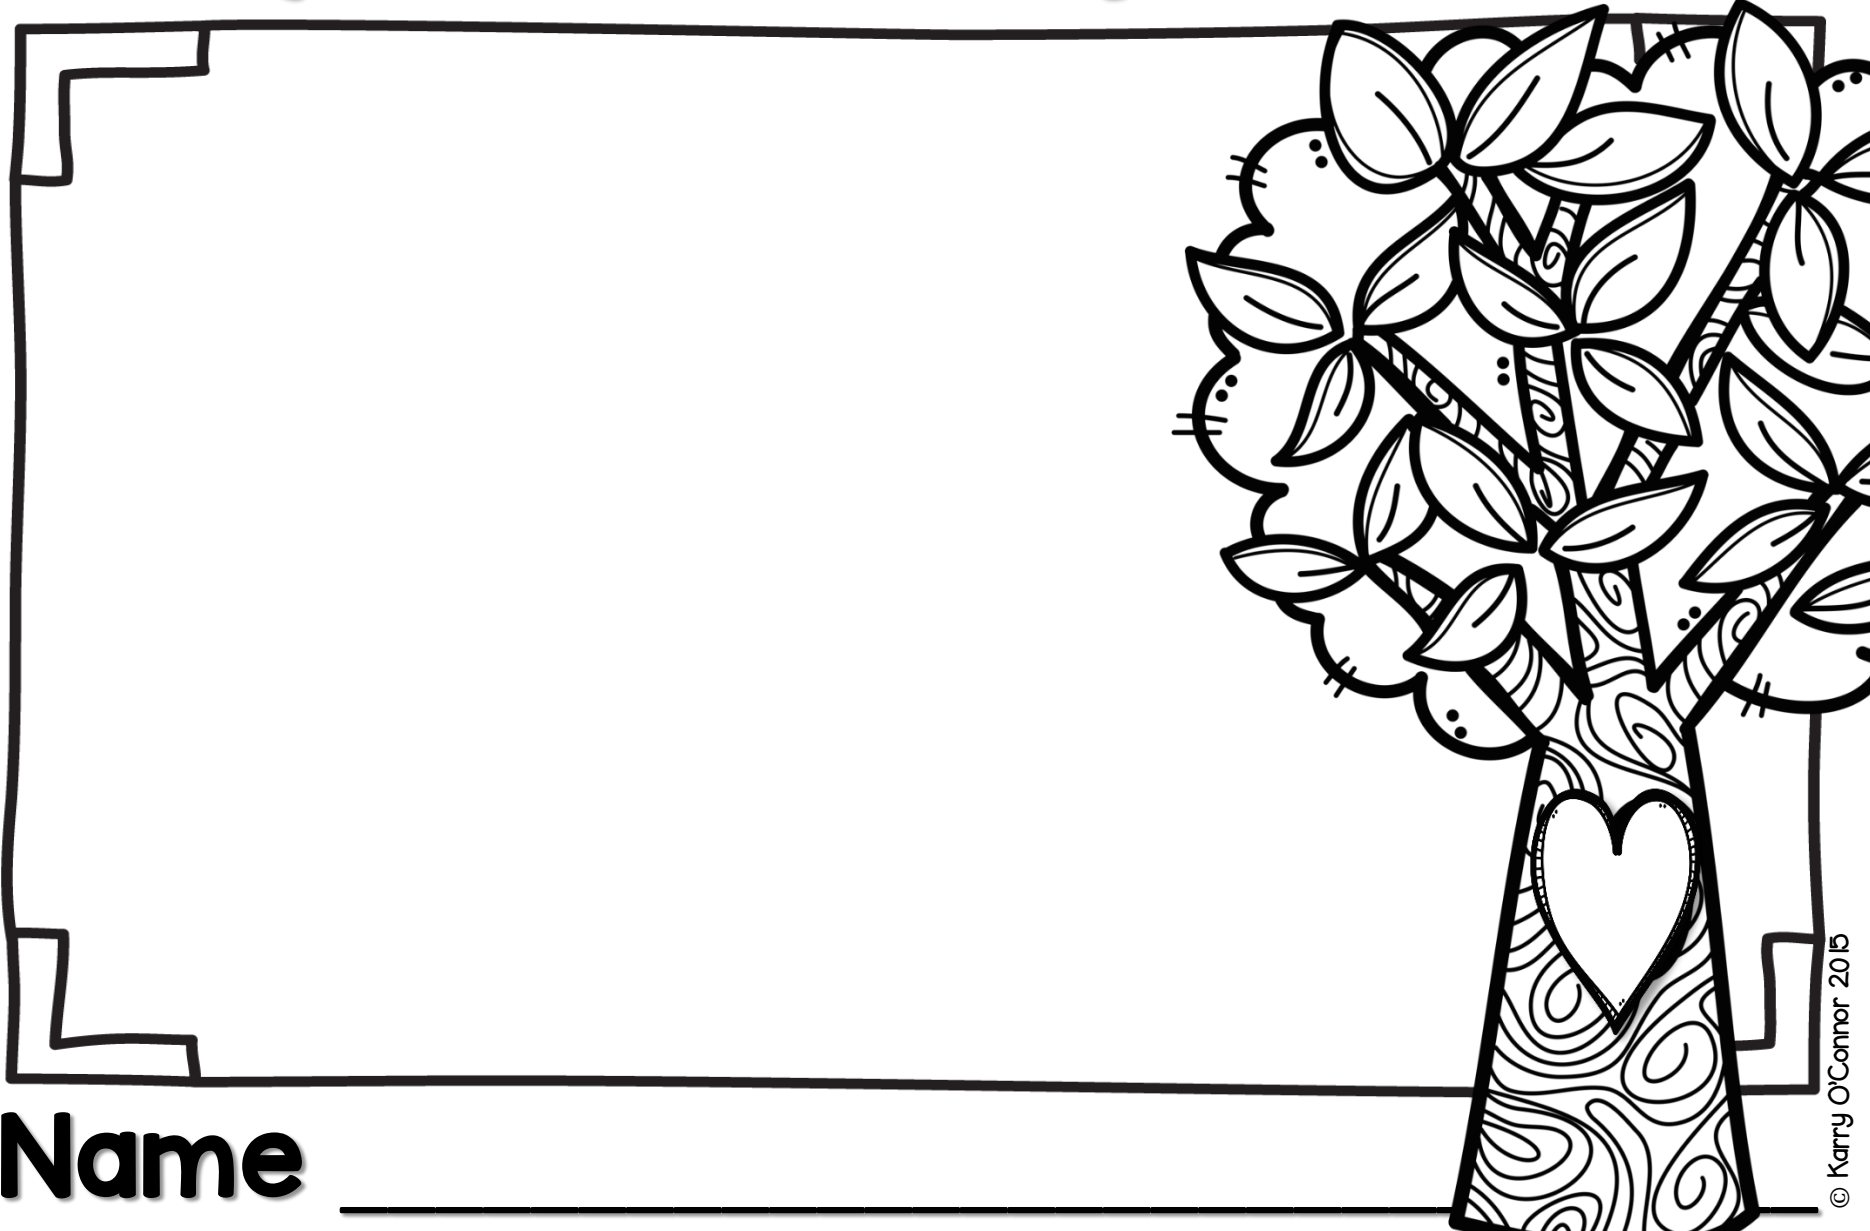

There are lots of different types of families!

How to play "Find the Family": Print and laminate the cards. Display the alphabet cards in a pocket chart or on a table. Ask your students to close their eyes while you hide one or more of the "family" cards behind a letter. Allow your students to identify the letters one at a time until someone finds the "family" card. This activity works well as a group lesson or for alphabet review in a center!
